Kaleidoscope Features Events in the Arts Community airing on Harford Cable Network

(Bel Air, MD) - - The Harford County Cultural Arts Board within the Department of Community Services, in partnership with Harford Cable Network, produces the bi-monthly television program Kaleidoscope. Hosted by Carolyn Black-Sotir, each show highlights the latest in arts and entertainment information in Harford County. The current show airing through August 2014 features interviews with:

- Rachel Harbin- Disabilities Coordinator, Harford County Department of Community Services

- "Art Without Boundaries"

- Ben Cox- Harford County Department of Parks and Recreation

- "Aberdeen Summer Concert Series"

- Erika Quesenberry Sturgill/Angela Rose- Bel Air Downtown Alliance

- "2014 Maryland State BBQ Bash"

The "Out and About" segment, which takes the viewer into the community, spotlights the Harford Ballet Company's performance of Cinderella.

For more information on airing times or to watch the program on demand, visit www.harfordcable.org. Video on demand (VOD) is available by clicking the "Watch Your Favorite Programs Online" button in the upper right-hand corner of the home page.
